

Math Course Sequence 2013-14 Update

I. First Three Math Courses in Sequence (Options for 2013-14):

For Students enrolling in their first high school math course in 2012-13 or after, options include:

- Math I
- Math II (students who took Algebra I, IM I, or Math I in 2012-13 should enroll in Math II)
- Math III

For students in OCS:

- OCS Introduction to Mathematics
- Math I
- OCS Financial Management OR Alternate Math II OR Personal Finance

For Students enrolling in their first high school math course prior to 2012-13, additional options include:

- Common Core Geometry (for students finishing the sequence of Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry)
- Common Core Algebra II (for students finishing the sequence of Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II)
- Integrated Math III (for students finishing the sequence IM I, IM II, IM III)

Note: CC Geometry; CC Alg II; and CC IM III courses will no longer be available after 2013-14

II. Fourth Math Course in Sequence For 2013-14 (Options for 2013-14 and beyond):

- Pre-Calculus
- Advance Functions and Modeling
- Discrete Math
- Integrated Math IV (for students completing the IM I, II, III, IV sequence – 2014-15 last year for IM IV)
- Appropriate AP courses (based on prerequisites)

Additional Options beginning in 2014-15

- Math IV
- SREB College Ready Math